

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota is celebrating its centennial in 1989; and,

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man, and South Dakota's towns and cities, from the smallest to the largest, are the heart and soul of the state; and,

WHEREAS, The Indian community of White River, in Mellette County, South Dakota, is blessed with a rich Indian history, enduring heritage, and hard-working Indian citizenry; and,

WHEREAS, On August 19 and 20, White River will be holding its Frontier Days; and,

WHEREAS, During the Indian celebration, there will be a memorial tribute to the Indian people who lived in the White River area 100 years ago, and also their descendants who are still living in the area will be honored along with area senior citizens; and,

WHEREAS, On behalf of a state grateful for the benefits derived from these very special past and present South Dakotans:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 20, 1989, as

HORSE CREEK AND SWIFT BEAR COMMUNITIES DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Second Day of August, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine
